I

WHEN I shall go where my Redeemer is,
In the far City, on the other side,
And at the threshold of His palaces
Shall loose my sandals ever to abide,
I know my Heavenly King will smiling wait
To give me welcome as I touch the gate.

II

Oh, joy! oh, bliss! for I shall see His face,
And wear His blessed Name upon my brow ;
That Name which stands for pardon, love and grace,
That Name before which every knee shall bow ;
No music half so sweet can ever be,
As that dear Name which He shall write for me.

III

CROWNED with this royal signet I shall walk,
With lifted forehead through the eternal street,
And with a holier mien and gentler talk,
Will tell my story to the friends I meet ;
Of how the King did stoop His Name to write
Upon my brow in characters of light.

IV

THEN, till I go to meet my Father's smile,
I'll keep my forehead smooth from passion's scars ;
From angry frowns that trample and defile
And every sin that desecrates and mars,
That I may lift a face unflushed with shame,
Whereon my Lord may write His holy Name.
